SEABRIGHT IN RUINS

The New Jersey Summer Resort Swept by Flames.

OVER 400 BUILDINGS BURNED.

One Hundred Families Driven Into the Streets and Are Homeless.

The One Fire Company in the Town Was Helpless—Firemen Brought in from Asbury Park and Long Branch—Affecting Scores in the Streets—The Loss Estimated at $300,000.

SEABRIGHT, N. J., June 17.—This well-known summer resort was visited by a disastrous fire last night, which reduced to ashes the larger portion of the town. About four hundred buildings were burned. Several hundred families have been rendered homeless. The total loss will reach at least $300,000.

The fire broke out in a livery stable on River street, and as a gale of wind was blowing along the coast at the time the flames spread rapidly. In a remarkably short time a whole block of buildings on River street was burning. There is but a small fire department in the town and help was telegraphed for from Long Branch and Asbury Park.

By the time this assistance arrived a large portion of the southern portion of the town was in flames.

Women and children ran through the streets crying and wringing their hands in a frantic manner, while the men aided the firemen in attempting to check the flames.

The flames at this time made such rapid headway that in many instances the inmates of the buildings barely had time to escape with their lives.

The burned section. The section burned over extends from the Shrewsbury River to the ocean and to the point where the New Jersey Southern Railroad crosses Ocean Grove.

Among the buildings burned were the postoffice, the Seabright and Poppenger's Hotels, the Methodist Church, school-house, buildings occupied by the New Jersey Telephone Company and the Elberon Steamboat Company. Part of the Octagon Hotel was burned.

Many residences were burned, and the portion in which the fishermen dwell suffered severely. Many of these hardy people lost their all and to-day are homeless and penniless.

Many of the wealthy citizens and the hotels which escaped destruction have thrown open their houses to the sufferers.

Pastor Owens of the Asbury M. E. Church, lost everything after he thought he had escaped. His furniture was moved into the street, but before it could be carted away it was set on fire by a spark and burned.

One of the saddest features of the fire lies in the fact that but few of the dwellings were insured, the inmates being unable to carry any insurance. Upon the total loss more than half is covered by insurance. Editor Van Sant of the Sentinel says his paper will be issued this week from the office of the Long Branch Times.

THE GREAT SUBURBAN.
Over 30,000 People Saw Loantaka Win the Sensational Race.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The great Suburban has been run and will pass into history as the greatest turf event of 1891.

Never before has such a crowd witnessed a horse race in this country, and this despite the fact that it was the hottest June day ever known in the vicinity of New York. At the track it was simply blazing, blistering hot, with not a nook or corner within reach where the heat could be escaped.

A conservative estimate placed the number of persons present at 30,000, but many believed that 40,000 was much nearer the figure.

The race itself proved very sensational, inasmuch as Tenny, who went to the post the hottest favorite ever known in the Suburban, was not only defeated for first place, but finished in the rack. The second choice, Tea Tray, finished absolutely last, but Major Domo, the third choice, managed to get the place by a length from Cassius.

The winner turned up in Loantaka, the 5-year-old son of Sensation and Peggy Dawdle, who was a long shot in the betting, there being as much as 40 to 1 against him.

When the judges summoned the horses to the post they paraded past the grand stand and back again. After a little maneuvering they came down toward the starter on a line. Down went the red flag, and with a mighty roar of "They're off!" the race was on.

Major Domo was the first to break the line, and came toward the stand with a head the best of it, while Cassius was second, a length before Banquet, who was a length in front of Demuth, who in turn was a head before Isaac Lewis, with the rest all bunched. Tenny, Tea Tray and Loantaka were bringing up the rear. Tea Tray was sulking and, notwithstanding Garrison's efforts, refused to run.

When the backstretch was reached the order was about the same, and Murphy tried to improve his position on Tenny, but the little swaback could not gain a yard. As they approached the upper turn, Major Domo had three-quarters of a length the best of it, while Demuth was two lengths in front of Cassius, with Fitzjames next, followed by Tenny, who was getting the whip. The interest at this period was intense and shouts of dismay arose. "Tenny is beaten," cried the backers of the favorite, and so he was, for, notwithstanding Murphy's most vigorous efforts, Tenny could not improve his position.

As they swung into the stretch, Major Domo was the first to show a head before Demuth, who was a head before Cassius. They ran in this order down to the last furlong, when Bergon cut loose with Loantaka and it was all over. With space-killing strides he passed horse after horse, and the plaudits of winners and losers alike, and won a length and a half from Major Domo, who beat Cassius a length for the place. Then came Fitzjames, Banquet, Tenny, Riley, Demuth, Isaac Lewis and Tea Tray in the order named.

The fractional time of the race was: Quarter, 0:23 1/4; half, 0:50; three-quarters, 1:15; mile, 1:41; mile and a quarter, 2:07.

Dr. Jones of Scranton Suspected of Causing the Death of His Wife and Child.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 17.—Dr. A. E. Jones, who has been practicing medicine in the Providence section of the city, has been warned to leave Scranton. A petition signed by leading business men and citizens in that portion of the city politely told him to remove, in order to save trouble.

Dr. Jones is charged with having neglected his practice and treated his family with barbarous cruelty, the death of an infant child being followed on Friday last by that of his wife, whom he is charged with having abused.

The wife's body was sent to Wilmington, Del., to her family for burial, kind-hearted neighbors looking after this ceremony, while the husband absented himself from the house, and even refused to accompany the corpse to the last resting place.
